FACULTY OF ARTS

TEACHING AND EXAMINATION REGULATIONS (OER)

Part B: Bachelor's degree programme in European Languages and Cultures
ISAT 56124

for academic year 2024-2025

Contents

SECTION 1    GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1.1 – Applicability

These Regulations comprise two parts – Part A and Part B. This degree programme-specific Part B supplements Part A, which contains general stipulations for the teaching and examinations of the Bachelor's degree programmes taught at the Faculty of Arts, hereinafter referred to as the Faculty. Part B contains stipulations that specifically concern the Bachelor's degree programme in European Languages and Cultures.

SECTION 2    ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Article 2.1 – Admission to the programme with profile requirement
Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2.1. of Part A of these Teaching and Examination Regulations, the following supplementary requirements apply to this degree programme: N/A.

Article 2.2 – Educational deficiencies

1. Deficiencies in educational qualifications in the subjects listed below may be compensated for by passing the relevant examinations at the level of the VWO final examination to the satisfaction of the Admissions Board: N/A.
2. Under certain circumstances, the Admissions Board can request a university lecturer in the relevant subject to arrange one or more tests.

Article 2.3 Language requirement for foreign certificates

1. Students who have been admitted to a degree programme on the basis of a foreign certificate or degree may be required by the Admissions Board – before registration – to pass a Dutch test if they choose the Dutch track, to be administered by an agency stipulated by the Board.
2. The Dutch-taught track will be open to students whose level of Dutch is the equivalent of/comparable to the NT2-II state examination (this is CEFR B2).
3. The Dutch language proficiency requirement can in any event be met by passing the state examination in Dutch as a Second Language (NT2-II).

Article 2.4 – Starting date

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2.7 of Part A, the following additional requirement applies to this degree programme:
Students who have previously been enrolled in this degree programme or who wish to start in a higher year may apply to the Admissions Board for permission to start on a date other than 1 September at the beginning of a block. The Admissions Board will grant permission for an alternative starting date if the student has satisfied the entry requirement for the course units the student wishes to follow.

SECTION 4    THE FIRST YEAR OF THE DEGREE PROGRAMME

Article 4.1 – Structure of the first year

1. The first year comprises the following course units with their related student workloads:

| No. | Course unit | Student workload in ECTS |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Language 1a* | 5 |
| 2 | Studying Europe | 5 |
| 3 | Language and Society a | 5 |
| 4 | Language 1b* | 5 |
| 5 | Culture and Literature a | 5 |
| 6 | Politics and Society a | 5 |

| 9 | Language and Society b | 5 |
| 10 | Language 2b* | 5 |
| 11 | Culture and Literature b | 5 |
| 12 | Politics and Society b | 5 |

All course units are listed in the online course catalogue OCASYS.

*Language 1 and 2 refer to the chosen single major language (Dutch, German, French, English, Russian, Italian, Swedish or Spanish). Students that can prove that they already master the language and the academic skills at the required level may be exempted from Language 1a and Language 1b by one of two paths: 1) they may complete an exam administered by the ETC program, which will be a written and oral exam equivalent to the final exam for the course they would like to be exempt from, or 2) they can present documentation of professional or academic experience, or other convincing evidence of competence in the language, to the Exam Committee. In case of Plus languages this is only applicable to Language Plus 1a and Language Plus 1b.

2. The modes of instruction and assessment for the course units listed above are set out in the syllabus for each individual course unit and the Assessment Plan for the degree programme.
3. In situations of force majeure, when it is not reasonably possible to provide teaching in the manner stated in OCASYS, alternative modes of instruction and assessment may temporarily be used. This is on condition that the prescribed learning outcomes are still achieved upon completion of the degree programme.

SECTION 5    THE SECOND AND THIRD YEARS OF THE DEGREE PROGRAMME

Article 5.1a – Structure of the second and thirs years

1. The second and third years of the degree programme comprises the following course units with their related student workloads:

Article 7.2 – Amendments

1. Any amendments to Part A of these Regulations will, after due consultation with and if necessary upon the approval of the Faculty Council, be confirmed by the Faculty Board in a separate decree.
2. Any amendments to Part B of these Regulations will, following the recommendation by and/or upon the approval of the Programma Committee and the Faculty Council, be confirmed by the Faculty Board in a separate decree.
3. Any amendments to these Regulations will not apply to the current academic year, unless it may reasonably be assumed that the amendment in question will not harm the interests of students.
4. In addition, an amendment may not influence any other decision concerning a student taken by the Board of Examiners under these Regulations to the disadvantage of students.

Article 7.3 – Publication

1. The Faculty Board will duly publish these Regulations, the Rules and Regulations formulated by the Board of Examiners, and any amendments to these documents.
2. Copies of the documents referred to in Article 8.2.1 are available from the Faculty Office. These documents can also be found on the Faculty website via 'My University'.

Article 7.4 – Date of commencement

These Regulations will take effect on 1 September 2024.

These Regulations were decreed by the Board of the Faculty of Arts on 21 August 2024 and approved by the Faculty Council and the Programme Committee where required.
