

Short Biography Dr. Franziska Weber

Dr. Franziska Weber is a post doc researcher at the Private Law Department, Erasmus University Rotterdam, within the BACT (Behavioural Approaches to Tort and Contract Law)-research program.

She studied the Bachelor of European and Comparative Law (“Hanse Law School”) at the Universities of Oldenburg and Bremen, including a study visit at the University of Sheffield. After her Bachelor graduation she could gain work experience as an advisor for the IHK Nord - Representation of Northern German Chambers of Commerce and Industry, Brussels. She completed her LL.M. ‘Master European Law School’ at the University of Maastricht cum laude and subsequently started with the EDLE (European Doctorate in Law and Economics)-Program at the Universities of Rotterdam, Bologna and Hamburg. In June 2012 Franziska Weber successfully defended her PhD thesis “Towards an optimal mix of public and private enforcement in consumer law?” under the supervision of Prof. Michael G. Faure and Prof. Willem H. van Boom. Since 2011 she is admitted to the bar in Madrid as a Spanish lawyer.