 - VAR Pleitwedstijden (VAR Moot Courts) 4 ECTS
3. Optional course units must be chosen from the course units with level M4 or M5 (see Ocasys). If an M4 course unit was taken for the optional ECTS within a bachelor, this course unit cannot be chosen for the optional ECTS of the master degree programme. In special circumstances the Board of Examiners can decide to allow (a) course unit(s) from other research university master programmes to be chosen. The Board of Examiners will always take the coherence of (parts of) the programme into consideration when assessing such a request.
 4. The student will hand in a request for approval of the optional ECTS at least three months before s/he wants to take the course unit involved. Such request can be done through Progress. If a request is handed in exceeding this term, the Board of Examiners can decide that the request is not admissible.
 5. A decision to deny approval by the Board of Examiners will be supported with reasons.
 6. The Board of Examiners will make its decision within six weeks of receipt of the request, except during University holidays. The Board of Examiners may postpone its decision for a maximum of fourteen days. The students must be notified of such a postponement before the end of the term referred to in the first sentence of this Article.
 7. The student will be informed of the decision without delay. If the Board of Examiners has not decided within the possibly extended term, mentioned in Article 3.22.5, the approval is considered given.

Article 3.23 – Seminar assessment

1. Successful participation in seminars equals passing the examination for these course units. Seminars do not have a resit possibility.
2. The assessment of seminars is expressed by grades or the result 'pass' or 'fail'.
3. A student needs to fulfil all the requirements for a seminar which have been set by the lecturer in order to obtain a sufficient assessment or final grade. If a student has not fulfilled the requirement of the seminar according to the lecturer, the result 'fail' will be registered for the seminar. The requirements that the student has fulfilled will be declared null and void at the end of that academic year.
4. An examiner will decide the mark for a seminar as soon as possible, but in any case within twenty working days after the final seminar-class at the latest or within twenty working days after the student has fulfilled all requirements of the seminar at the latest.

Section 4 Examinations and final assessment of the degree programme: general provisions

Article 4.1 – Board of Examiners and examiners

1. The Board of Examiners is the independent body that determines whether individual students have the knowledge, understanding and skills required to be awarded a degree.
2. The Faculty Board appoints the members of the Board of Examiners on the basis of their expertise in the field of the degree programme (or cluster of degree programmes) in question.
3. The Board of Examiners will appoint examiners to set examinations and determine the results.
4. The Board of Examiners will set out the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Examiners.

Article 4.2 – Assessment plan

The Assessment plan by the Faculty Board is part of the TER of each degree programme. The Assessment Plan comprises the following:

1. the learning outcomes of the degree programme;
2. the course units of the degree programme with their student workload in ECTS, and the learning outcomes of each course unit;
3. the relationship between course units and learning outcomes;
4. the mode of assessment used and the assessment moments for each course unit;
5. the test design and assessment procedures and assessment criteria used;
6. the right of inspection;
7. who is responsible for the implementation of the various components of the assessment policy;
8. the method of regular evaluation.

Article 4.3 – Examination; general

1. Every course unit has an examination. The examination assesses the students' mastery of the learning outcomes of the course unit.
2. An examination can comprise a number of partial exams. The results of these partial exams together determine the examination result.
3. The results of an examination are given as pass or fail, in numbers on a scale of 1 to 10, expressed as 6 or more for a pass and 5 or less for a fail.

4. If a student at a written examination clearly writes 'do not correct' on the examination sheet, this is supposed to not have participated in this examination. No results will be registered for this student in the system. All rights linked to examination participation will become null and void for this student for such examinations.

Article 4.4 – Examination frequency and periods

1. The academic year holds four examination periods. With the exception of the seminars at least one opportunity for an examination and one opportunity for a resit will be offered per year for the examinations of the course units listed in Article 2.2. The examination periods are scheduled as follows:
 1. The examination period after the classes of block 1
 2. The examination period after the classes of block 2
 3. The examination period after the classes of block 3
 4. The examination period after the classes of block 4
2. The two examinations for a subject – referred to as the examination and the resit – are taken during the examination period of the block within which the course unit was offered and the adjacent block.

Article 4.5 – Assessment of placement/internship or research assignment

The assessment of a placement/internship or research assignment will be conducted by the person appointed as examiner and will be based on the advice from the on-site supervisor and the original commissioner.

Article 4.6 – Form of examinations

1. Examinations will be taken in the form stated in Ocasys.
2. At the student's request, in exceptional circumstances of pressing nature, the Board of Examiners may allow an examination to be taken in a form different from that stated in the course unit description.
3. Mock versions of each examination will be made available to practise.
4. The assessment of a Master's thesis and of participation in research projects, internships, seminars and other practical assignments is done by the examiners in a way determined by the examiners. The assessment of a Master's thesis of at least 18 ECTS of which the thesis topic has been registered by the thesis coordinator will be conducted by two examiners, on the basis of the Thesis Regulations.
5. When the assessment of a course consists of assignments and papers, according to the course description, a student should participate in all components of the assessment, unless the examiner decides differently, which should be clearly stated in the course description. The student's result of the seminar will be expressed in a final mark. The examiner defines the weighing factor of the separate components. If a student did not participate in all components of the assessment, the result 'insufficient' will be registered for the course. The components of the assessment that the student did participate in will be cancelled at the end of that academic year.

Article 4.7 – Oral examinations

1. Unless the Board of Examiners decides otherwise, an oral examination may only be taken by one student at a time.
2. Oral examinations will be taken in the presence of two members of the academic staff.

Article 4.8 – Marking of examinations and publication of marks

1. The examiner will determine the result of the examination.
2. The Faculty Examination Administration will post the results at the tenth working day after the exam date at the latest. If necessary the examiner can ask the Director of Studies to grant an extension of fifteen working days before publishing the results of an exam or a resit, except for exams in block 4.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4.8.2, an examiner will decide the mark of an oral examination immediately and provide students with a copy of the written confirmation, thereof; the original will be sent to the Faculty Examination Administration.
4. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4.8.2, an examiner will decide the mark of a paper within a reasonable period after handing the paper. This period will not exceed 20 working days. The examiner provides students with a copy of the written confirmation, thereof as soon as possible.
5. Respecting Article 4.8.4, if an examination is taken in a form other than oral or written, the Board of Examiners will determine in advance how and when students will receive written confirmation of the result.
6. Students can lodge an appeal against the results of an examination with the Central Portal for the Legal Protection of Student Rights (CLRS) within 6 weeks of the date on which the result was announced.

Article 4.9 – Repeating a course unit passed

1. A course unit that has been completed with a pass cannot be taken again.
2. In derogation from Article 4.9.1, students may submit a request to regard an examination that was passed as not having been taken, except where the examination was the form of a practical exercise (seminar). This request must be submitted within three days after publication of the results of that examination. This regulation may be applied to a maximum of two examinations per academic year.

3. If the examination result which was deleted at the request of the student is, during the post mortem of the examination, raised to a result which the student wishes to stand, s/he can request the examiner to register this result in the Faculty's Examination Registration. With this request, the previous deletion request is considered not to have been made.

Article 4.10 – Validity of course units

1. Completed course units remain valid indefinitely.
2. Partial examinations and assignments passed within a course unit that has not been successfully completed will lapse at the end of the academic year in which they were passed.

Article 4.11 – Right of inspection and post mortem

1. If a written examination has been taken, the exam must be made available to students after the examination, and at least within the period stated in Article 4.11.3.
2. Every examination sheet will be provided with information about time, place and type of consultation, whether the corrected exam can be collected and discussion times such that students can take it along with them after the examination. Further, (the appendix to) the examination form must state that an appeal may be lodged against the decisions of examiners within 6 weeks with the Board of Appeals for Examinations, in accordance with Article 7.61 of the Higher Education and Research Act (WHW).
3. The examiner will arrange a time and place where either;
 - a. the corrected examination will be returned to the examinees for inspection and a general post mortem will be held, or
 - b. the corrected examinations with standard answers will be shown or handed out to examinees.

The time of the post mortem must be no later than I) two weeks after the announcement of the exam results and II) four working days before the resit examination. For examinations for the second semester the time mentioned under 1 may be deviated from and may fall in the period around the start of the next first semester.

4. If an examination is conducted digitally, the examination questions and the answers given by the student should be made available for the student's perusal during a reasonable period of time. Students are responsible for having their answers available in a manner prescribed by the lecturer (digitally or in print) during the post mortem.

5. At the time referred to in Article 4.11.3, the examinations will be returned to the examinees by members of the relevant department in such a way that name, student card number or registration number can be checked during the inspection or taking out of the exam.
6. The member of the academic staff involved, will provide students with the opportunity to discuss the examination individually, either at a time immediately subsequent to that stated in Article 4.11.3, or on a later day. If individual post mortems do not take place at the time stated in Article 4.11.3 but at a later time, the lecturer may collect the papers of those students who wish an individual post mortem and keep them until this later date. If students wish to take out examination papers for which they have scored a 5, this will always be a copy of the original.
7. A student who does not attend the post mortem at the time and place stated in Article 4.11.3 and does not submit a notice of absence based on reasonable grounds, has no right to a post mortem as set out in Article 4.11.3 and 4.11.6. The assessment of the reasonable grounds for absence lies with the examiner.
8. Post mortems must aim at clarifying errors or omissions in an answer given by a student.
9. Students may take notes during the post mortem as long as this is not done on the examination sheet.
10. If corrected examinations may be taken out by the examinees, the lecturer must offer one more occasion subsequent to the time stated in Article 4.11.3 at which they may be collected. The examinations then also will be returned to the examinees by members of the relevant department in such a way that name, student card number or registration number can be checked during inspection or taking out.
11. Every examinee is allowed to arrange for his or her corrected examination to be collected by someone else at the time stated in Article 4.11.3 or 4.11.10. That person must present the registration number and proof of identification of the examinee.

Article 4.12 – Thesis

1. A thesis can in principle only be used for one University of Groningen degree programme. Full or partial exemptions for a degree programme's thesis may be granted by the Board of Examiners based on a thesis written for another degree programme. For rules and regulations, please check the Thesis Regulation.
2. Theses are stored by the Faculty Board for a period of at least 7 years.

Article 4.13 – Degree

1. A student who has satisfied all the requirements of the final assessment will be awarded the degree of 'Master of Laws' (LLM), more specifically:

- a. for the degree programme European Economic Law: Master of Laws (LLM) in European Economic Law;
 - b. for the degree programme Global Criminal Law: Master of Laws (LLM) in Global Criminal Law;
 - c. for the degree in Energy and Climate Law: Master of Laws (LLM) in Energy and Climate Law;
 - d. for the degree programme in International Business Law: Master of Laws (LLM) in International Business Law;
 - e. for the degree programme International Commercial Law: Master of Laws (LLM) in International Commercial Law;
 - f. for the degree programme in Public International Law/International Human Rights Law: Master of Laws (LLM) in Public International Law(-International Human Rights Law).
2. The degree awarded will be indicated on the certificate. Any tracks will be mentioned on the diploma supplement.

Article 4.14 – Honours ('judicium'; Cum Laude and Summa Cum Laude)

1. The Board of Examiners shall determine whether an honours distinction shall be awarded to a Master's degree certificate.
2. The conditions to be met are set out in the Examination Regulation. The Examination Regulations are available through the Law Knowledgebase on the Studentportal.

Article 4.15 – Final assessment (awarding of degree certificate)

1. The Board of Examiners will determine the result of the final assessment at the student's request when it is determined that the student has successfully passed all examination components of his/her programme approved by the Board of Examiners. Also the Examination Administration can request the Board of Examiners to determine the result of the final assessment when it has been confirmed that he student has successfully passed all examination components of his/her programme approved by the Board of Examiners. Before the Examination Administration requests the Board of Examiners to determine the result of the examination, the student has to be informed of this request. If the student would like to take additional examination components, s/he will have to request this to the Board of Examiners within two weeks. A student needs to request approval of his/her list of course units to the Board of Examiners at least three months prior to obtaining his/her final course unit. This request needs to be made through Progress. An approved list of courses becomes null and void in case of discontinuation of registration in the programme.
2. Students who have passed all the examinations for a degree programme must apply for the certificate no later than two weeks after doing so. The examination date entered on the certificate by the Board of Examiners is the date on which the student is deemed by the Board to have satisfied the final examination requirements.

3. If students apply for their degree certificate after the period mentioned in Article 4.15.3, the Board of Examiners will mention as graduation date the date that the Board of Examiners determined that the student in question has completed his/her programme, even if this date at which the Board of Examiners takes this decision is in a different academic year and the student should be registered in that new academic year.
4. When determining the result of the final assessment, the Board of Examiners will use the data about the examinations taken registered with the Faculty Administration, unless the student can prove the contrary.
5. A maximum of 30 ECTS can be exempt in a Master of Laws programme. Therefore a student needs to be registered as a master student of the Faculty for a minimum period of at least one semester in order to be able to successfully pass the Master's examination. If a student wishes to be examined in multiple Master's degree programmes within the Faculty, the student needs to be registered during a minimum period of one semester in each of the programmes though this can be simultaneously.
6. The successfully passed final assessment as referred to in Article 4.15.1, and all assignments submitted within the framework of this assessment, will be kept on file by the Faculty Board for a period of at least 7 years.

Article 4.16 – More than one Master of Laws degree

1. If a student, after obtaining a Master of Laws degree of this University or from another Law Faculty, would like to take another Master of Laws programme at this University, s/he has to fulfil all requirements of the curriculum of that Master of Laws programme that have been prescribed for in the Teaching and Examination Regulations of that programme. Exemptions may be granted for compulsory subjects from the curriculum that have already been sufficiently passed in the first Master of Laws programme, with the exception of the Master's thesis.
2. If a student can fulfil the requirements of the Teaching and Examination Regulations of the second (third, etc.) Master of Laws programme by taking less than 30 ECTS of new course units, the student needs to take, after approval by the Board of Examiners, new optional course units until 30 ECTS of new course units have been obtained. The Master's thesis can be included in these 30 ECTS in new course units.

Section 5 Examinations and final assessment of the degree programme: specific provisions

Article 5.1 – Examination provisions in special circumstances

1. If not granting a student an individual examination provision would lead to an ‘exceptional instance of unfairness of overriding nature’, the Board of Examiners may decide to grant such a provision contrary to the stipulations of Article 4.4.
2. Requests for individual examination provisions, including documentary evidence, must be submitted to the Board of Examiners as soon as possible.

Article 5.2 – Examinations and functional impairments

1. Students with a functional impairment will be given the opportunity to take examinations in a form that will compensate as far as possible for their individual impairment. If necessary, the Board of Examiners will seek expert advice on this matter.
2. With regard to examinations for electives taken by students with a functional impairment, the Board of Examiners of the degree programme that sets the examination will comply with the facilities permitted by the Board of Examiners of the degree programme for which the student is registered.

Article 5.3 – Exemptions

1. At the student’s request, the Board of Examiners, having discussed the matter with the examiner in question, may grant exemption from an examination for a compulsory course unit, thesis and seminar excluded, on the condition that the student has already passed:
 - a. such a course unit of a university law master degree similar in size, content and level.
 - b. such an (optional) compulsory course unit of a university law bachelor degree which is similar in size and content. In derogation from Article 5.3.1a the student has to replace the exempted credits by taking extra optional course units at master level.
2. Notwithstanding Article 5.3.1, students who are fully admitted to the shortened LLM programme after their exchange period in Groningen can be exempt from the compulsory seminar.
3. An exemption request needs to be handed in in written form at the Board of Examiners.
4. The Board of Examiners decides within six weeks after receipt of the request. Academic holidays are excluded from these six weeks.
5. The validity period of exemptions granted for course units or parts thereof is identical to that of examination results.

Article 5.4 – Request for additional resit (aberrant examination regulation)

All possible aberrant examinations are arranged for in the aberrant examination regulation.

Article 5.5 – Authority of the Board of Examiners regarding electives offered by other degree programmes

1. A request to take an elective offered by another degree programme must be approved by the Board of Examiners of the student's own degree programme.
2. The Board of Examiners of the other degree programme is authorized to set and assess the examinations and decide upon requests for alternative exam regulations.

Article 5.6 – Open Degree programme

1. The degree programme comprises the following theoretical course units with their study loads: 6 course units to be chosen from the list of English-language optional course units (see Ocasys 2016-2017), together at least 36 ECTS.
2. In addition, the degree programme comprises the following compulsory course units with their study loads:
 - a. Seminar to be chosen from the seminars of the Master's degree programmes of Article 3.1-3.6, at least 6 ECTS;
 - b. Master's thesis 18 ECTS.
3. The degree programme must form a coherent entity in relation to the desired degree. It may not be realised within one of the existing degree programmes and must be at least 50% different with regard to the compulsory part of the programme of the desired degree.
4. Before the start of the course, the programme must be discussed with the LLM study adviser and submitted for approval to the Board of Examiners.
5. The course descriptions, available in Ocasys, hold further descriptions of the content and education format of the course units plus the prerequisites of each course that is considered to be either required or advised in order to be able to successfully pass said course.
6. Activities, including participation in lectures and examinations, which have been conducted contrary to Article 5.6.4 are considered not to have taken place.

Article 5.7 – Cheating and plagiarism

The Board of Examiners has established procedures concerning fraud in the Examination Regulations.

Article 5.8 – Invalid examination

In the event of irregularities with regard to an examination or a part of an examination that are so serious that an accurate assessment of the examinee's knowledge, understanding and skills cannot be made, the Board of Examiners may declare the examination or a part of the examination invalid for either an individual examinee or a group of examinees.

Article 5.9 – Course units completed elsewhere

3. A Master's degree can only be awarded if at least half of the course units of the degree programme were offered by the Faculty of Law during the student's period of registration as a student at the University of Groningen.
4. For Double Degree Master's degree programmes offered together with an institution abroad, at least half of the programme must have been followed at the Faculty of Law during the student's period of registration as a student at the University of Groningen.

Article 5.10 – Termination of registration (Iudicium Abeundi)

1. In extraordinary cases of reprehensible behaviour and/or statements made by a student, the Board of the University may, on the recommendation of the Board of Examiners or the Faculty Board, terminate that student's registration.
2. The Board of the University will not make a decision as referred to in Article 5.10.1 until after the student in question has been given the opportunity to respond to the proposed decision, the interests of the student and the institution have been carefully assessed, and it is reasonable to assume that the student's behaviour and/or statements prove him/her to be unsuitable for one or more of the professions for which he/she is being trained in his/her degree programme, or for the practical preparation for the profession. In such cases the Faculty Board, the Board of Examiners and the Board of the University will follow the Protocol Iudicium Abeundi [protocol for termination of registration] as approved by the Nederlandse Federatie van Universitaire Medische Centra [Netherlands Federation of University Medical Centres] on 1 November 2010.

Section 6 Study progress supervision

Article 6.1 – Study progress administration

The Faculty is responsible for registering the study results in such a way that students can be provided with an overview of their results concerning the teaching and examinations programme of the degree programme at least once a year.

Article 6.2 – Study progress supervision

The Faculty Board will organize the introduction and the study progress supervision of students enrolled in the degree programme, partly to facilitate their progress and also with a view to identifying potential study options within and outside the degree programme.

Section 7 Transitional and final provisions

Article 7.1 – Hardship clause

In extraordinary cases of a pressing nature, the Board of Examiners can derogate in favour of the student from what is determined in the Teaching and Examination Regulations, with the exception of section 6.

Article 7.2 – Transitional arrangements

Changes in the examination and programme requirements for Master's degree programmes that have taken effect on 1 September 2014 will be dealt with by means of transition regulations which are available in the Law Knowledgebase in the section 'Regulations'.

Article 7.3 – Amendments

1. Any amendments to these Regulations will, following a recommendation by and/or upon the approval of the Programme Committee and the Faculty Council, be confirmed by the Faculty Board in a separate decree. All such amendments will be published on the Faculty's website.
2. Any amendments to these Regulations will not apply to the current academic year, unless it may reasonably be assumed that the amendment in question will not harm the interests of students.
3. In addition, an amendment may not influence any other decision concerning a student taken by the Board of Examiners under these Regulations to the disadvantage of that student.

Article 7.4 – Publication

1. The Faculty Board will duly publish these Regulations, any rules and guidelines formulated by the Board of Examiners, and any amendments to these documents.
2. Copies of these Teaching and Examination Regulations are available from the Faculty Office. These documents can also be found on the Faculty website via 'Study Info' on the Student Portal.

Article 7.5 – Evaluation

1. The Faculty Board will ensure that the TER is regularly evaluated, assessing at least – for the purpose of monitoring and if necessary adapting the student workload – the amount of time students need to complete their duties as set out therein.
2. The Faculty Board evaluates the teaching in the programmes through course evaluations and curriculum evaluations. Each course is evaluated once every three years and the curriculum once every six years, mid-term in the reaccreditation process.

Article 7.6 – Date of commencement

These Regulations will take effect on 1 September 2018.

These Regulations were decreed by the Board of the Faculty of Law on 11 April with approval from the Faculty Council and the Programme Committee for the sections requiring this by law
