International book

Steffens, N., Rink, F., & Ryan, M. K. (2023). Organizational Psychology: Revisiting the Classic Studies. Sage Publications. London, UK. 280 pages

This book is part of SAGE's Revisiting the Classic Studies series: <https://au.sagepub.com/en-gb/oce/revisiting-the-classic-studies>. The rationale for this book is to provide a contemporary assessment of classic studies in the field of Organizational Psychology: first discussing a key classic study, and then going on to explain how it contributed to the development of understanding in a given area. The idea here, then, is to use the classic studies to give readers an insight into the foundations of the discipline, but also a sense of how the discipline has advanced in recent years. The book has many excellent senior contributors, including Adam Galinsky, Joe Magee, Derek Rucker, Sharon Parker, Giverny de Boeck, Peter Harms, Deborah Rupp, Russel Cropanzano, Naomi Ellemers, Dick de Gilder, Alex Haslam, Steve Reicher, Madeline Heilman, Sabine Sonnentag, Marylène Gagne, Jeff Vancouver, Andrew Neal, Tim Ballard, Niels van Quaquebeke, Catharina Voght, Mary Uhl-Bien, Melissa Carsten, Leslie DeChurch, Mark Erhart & Steve Wichting
